Document: Local/historical information

Minimum Retention Period: Indefinite – to be securely kept for benefit of the Parish
Reason : Councils may acquire records of local interest and accept gifts or records of general and local interest in order to promote the use for such records (defined as materials in written or other form setting out facts or events or otherwise recording Information)
Location Retained: Website and Office
Disposal: N/A

Document: Magazines and journals

Minimum Retention Period: Council may wish to keep its own publications. For others retain for as long as they are useful and relevant.
Reason : The Legal Deposit Libraries Act 2003 (the 2003 Act) requires a local council which after 1 February 2004 has published works in print (this includes a pamphlet, magazine or newspaper, a map, plan, chart or table) to deliver, at its own expense, a copy of them to the British Library Board (which manages and controls the British Library). Printed works as defined by the 2003 Act published by a local council therefore constitute materials which the British Library holds.

Document: General correspondence

Minimum Retention Period: Unless it relates to specific categories outlined in the policy, correspondence, both paper and electronic, should be kept. Records should be kept for as long as they are needed for reference or accountability purposes, to comply with regulatory requirements or to protect legal and other rights and interests.

Reason : Management

Location Retained: Website and Office

Disposal: Bin (shred waste). A list will be kept of those documents disposed of to meet the requirements of the GDPR regulations.

Document: Correspondence relating to staff. If related to Audit, see relevant sections above.

Minimum Retention Period: Should be kept securely and personal data in relation to staff should not be kept for longer than is necessary for the purpose it was held. Likely time limits for tribunal claims between 3–6 months. Recommend this period be for 3 years

Reason : After an employment relationship has ended, a council may need to retain and access staff records for former staff for the purpose of giving references, payment of tax, national insurance contributions and pensions, and in respect of any related legal claims made against the council.

Disposal: Confidential waste. A list will be kept of those documents disposed of to meet the requirements of the GDPR regulations.

Documents from legal matters, negligence and other torts

Most legal proceedings are governed by the Limitation Act 1980 (as amended). The 1980 Act provides that legal claims may not be commenced after a specified period. Where the limitation periods are longer than other periods specified the documentation should be kept for the longer period specified. Some types of legal proceedings may fall within two or more categories. If in doubt, keep for the longest of the three limitation periods.
